Consideration of 2017-2018 employee health insurance

Clerk Ray told the town board that their options are to stay with the current plan with Rocky Mountain Health Plan (RMHP), chose a different RMHP plan, or change to a Colorado Employer Benefit Trust (CEBT) plan. Before beginning discussion, Trustee Ashley had asked last week what the 2x co-pay meant. The answer from CEBT is that 2x copay means you get 90 days of drug (3 months) for 2 copays when you use mail order. You save a copay. Trustee Ashley asked if there was input from employees. Clerk Ray said that Deputy Clerk Phillips said that if the town board chooses to change to CEBT, her preference is the PPO 2 plan. PWS Berry said the PPO 2 plan is his choice as well. Clerk Ray said that she looked at the EPO 3 because it seemed to have some advantages for chronic illness or reaccuring visits, but overall the PPO 2 is probably the better plan for the town. Currently with RMHP, the deductible is $500/year with a $35 co-pay for an office visit. The PPO 2 plan has a $600 deductible per year, with a $30 co-pay for an office visit. START HERE Greg
